Andrew K. Quiambao was sentenced in the U.S. District Court, District of the Northern Mariana Islands, on July 1, 2004 for Conspiracy to Commit Arson, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 844(n). He was ordered to serve 37 months imprisonment and three years supervised release with conditions that he comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervised release; not possess a firearm or dangerous weapon; participate in a drug treatment and testing program approved by the U.S. Probation Office; perform 200 hours of community service; pay $567,396.54 restitution; and pay a $100 special assessment fee. Upon release from imprisonment on December 29, 2006, Mr. Quiambao was released to the District of Guam to serve his supervised release term.

Since the start of supervision on December 29, 2006, this Officer has worked closely with Mr. Quiambao to ensure compliance with all court-ordered conditions. He has made marginal progress to date, however, he has been less than cooperative with regard to payment of restitution. Specifically, Mr. Quiambao has refused to make monthly restitution payments of $200 per month, which is the amount this Officer has determined to be his ability pay. In addition, he has not submitted financial documents to this Officer as requested to support his claim of his inability to pay.

Supervision Compliance: Mr. Quiambao paid the $100 special assessment fee on January 22, 2005. While in custody, he paid $571.82 towards restitution. Since the start of supervision, Mr. Quiambao has paid $180 towards restitution. He has obtained employment as a courier and has agreed for his wages to be garnished at $150 per month. Garnishment should begin on June 2007. Mr. Quiambao has attended all drug treatment and testing appointments and has maintained adequate compliance. He has submitted all monthly supervision reports as required.
